Sundays Are for Suspense

Keep your popcorn handy as Sunday night dramas deliver more thrills and chills on PBS KVIE.

Retired detective Alex Ridley continues his investigations on Ridley at 8PM, editor-turned-sleuth Susan Ryeland races to find answers on Moonflower Murders on Masterpiece at 9PM, and Van der Valk on Masterpiece brings justice to Amsterdam at 10PM.

Two additional dramas bring even more Sunday suspense on October 27. At 9PM, The Marlow Murder Club on Masterpiece brings an all-new adaptation of Robert Thorogood's novel to life. The new 4-part series unites three unlikely friends – a retired archaeologist, a dog walker, and an unfulfilled vicar's wife – as they solve a series of fiendishly puzzling murders in the quiet town of Marlow.

At 10PM, Wolf Hall on Masterpiece follows the story of Thomas Cromwell, a blacksmith's son who rises from the ashes of personal disaster and deftly picks his way through a court where "man is wolf to man." On an encore of the first episode, Cardinal Wolsey is stripped of his powers after failing to secure the annulment of King Henry's marriage to Katherine of Aragon. His hopes of returning to the king's favor lie with the ever-loyal Cromwell.

Get that popcorn poppin' – we'll save you a seat!

Caramel Apple Crisp

By Sharon Profis

Ingredients

6 Honeycrisp apples, peeled and sliced ¼ inch thick • ½ cup brown sugar, divided
 1 tsp teaspoon cinnamon • salt • 3 tbsp tapioca starch • ½ tsp vanilla extract
 ½ lemon, juiced (or 2 tablespoons) • 1 cup flour • 1 cup oats
 ½ cup chopped walnuts • ½ cup unsalted butter • vanilla ice cream

Caramel Sauce

1 cup granulated sugar • ¼ cup water • ½ cup heavy cream
 2 tbsps unsalted butter • 1 tsp teaspoon salt

Directions

1. Begin by making the filling; add the apples to a large bowl with the cinnamon, tapioca starch, vanilla extract, lemon juice, ¼ cup brown sugar, and a pinch of salt. Mix well until all of the apple slices are evenly coated.
2. To make the crisp topping, add the flour and oats to another large bowl with the chopped walnuts, ¼ cup brown sugar, and a pinch of salt. In the microwave or over the stove, melt the butter. Add the melted butter in with the topping ingredients and combine. The topping is ready once the flour and sugar have absorbed the butter and there are no dry spots of flour remaining in the bowl.
3. To bake this dish, use an 8x8" or 9x9" pan or a cast iron skillet. Pour all of the filling mixture into the baking dish, including any juices from the apples that may have accumulated at the bottom of the bowl. With your hands, distribute the crisp topping mixture over the apple filling, breaking up any clumps of flour and oats as you go. Bake at 350 degrees for about 45 minutes.
4. Once the crisp is done baking, drizzle caramel sauce all over the top, and serve with a scoop of vanilla ice cream, of course!

Caramel Sauce

1. In a deep saucepan or pot over medium heat, add the sugar and water. Stir until the sugar is dissolved. Let the sauce simmer and bubble until it turns a deep golden-brown color, about 8-10 minutes. The time may vary, depending on whether the stove is gas, electric, or induction. The key is to keep a careful eye on it to make sure it doesn't burn.
2. Warm the heavy cream in the microwave for about 15 seconds and then whisk it in for a couple of minutes until the mixture looks smooth. Then turn off the heat and whisk in the salt and butter. At this point, the sauce should look silky. Serve this caramel sauce warm right away or store it in the fridge for 2-3 weeks.

LET'S BECOME BETTER NEIGHBORS.

Believe in Better.

Better health takes more than health care.

Research shows that by taking care and innovation beyond hospital and clinic walls, we can take community health to unprecedented levels. After all, health is bigger than the medicines we take and procedures we receive. It's having access to fresh healthy food, having the opportunity to work fulfilling careers — and supporting neighbors like family.
